DATE : 12.11.2023

Number of Participants : 35

Outcome

Local farmers gained actionable insights into modern farming practices, enabling them to transition from traditional methods to efficient crop management.

Event Details:

- Date: November 12, 2023
- Time: 10:00 AM onwards
- Location: TNAU & Heartfulness, Tirupur

Organized by the NSS Unit of Jai Shriram Engineering College, this community initiative is dedicated to supporting local farmers by bridging the gap between agricultural science and field practices. The session brings together agricultural experts and the farming community to discuss sustainable agricultural methodologies, high-yield crop varieties and modern management practices designed to maximize crop productivity and farm profitability.
